A STUDY OF THE WRITINGS OF JEREMIAH

11. Who is coming to bring judgment on Babylon (51:11-14)?

12. What comparison is made in the next paragraph (51:15-19)?

13. How has God used Babylon, and what would He do when done with them (51:20-26)?

14. Who would become enemies of Babylon (51:27-32)?

15. What context is given to the prophesied destruction of Babylon in the next section (51:33-40)?

16. What does God call on His people to do in the face of the coming destruction (51:41-53)?

17. After a final word about Babylon's destruction, what message does Jeremiah send to Babylon, and what does he want done with that message (51:54-64)?

18. Summarize the main points of Jerusalem's destruction (52:1-30).

18. How does Jeremiah end his prophecies, and what lesson might be meant by this ending (52:31-34)?
