

Moses and Matthew

Matthew 1-2

The Genealogies

- The word genealogy is the Greek word from which we get Genesis (Matt. 1:1). γένεσις
- The book of Genesis is structured around this word (Gen. 2:4; 5:1; 6:9; 11:10; 11:27; 25:19; 37:2).
- Genealogies are a way of telling or reminding of history (cf. 1 Chron. 1-2).

Abraham to Joseph

- Notice the name of Joseph's father (Matt. 1:16).

Abraham to Joseph

Abraham	Boaz	Jotham	Eliakim
Isaac	Obed	Ahaz	Azor
Jacob	Jesse	Hezekiah	Zadok
Judah	Solomon	Manasseh	Achim
Perez	Rehoboam	Amon	Eliud
Hezron	Abijah	Josiah	Eleazar
Ram	Asa	Jeconiah	Matthan
Amminidab	Jehoshaphat	Shealtiel	Jacob
Nahshon	Joram	Zerubbabel	Joseph
Salmon	Uzziah	Abihud	Jesus

Abraham to Joseph

Abraham
Isaac

Jacob
Joseph

Abraham to Joseph

Abraham

Abraham to Joseph

Abraham

- A famine leads him to Egypt (Gen. 12:10)
- Pharaoh struck with plagues (Gen. 12:17)
- Abraham leaves with plunder (Gen. 12:20)
- God cuts a covenant (Gen. 15:7, 16-18).
- Hagar (Gen. 16).
- Circumcision as a sign of covenant (Gen. 17).
- Abraham eats and drinks with God (Gen. 18:8).
- He intercedes for Sodom & Gomorrah (Gen. 18:23-33).
- A famine leads Israel to Egypt
- Pharaoh struck with plagues (Ex. 7-12)
- Israel leaves with plunder (Ex. 12:32)
- God cuts a covenant (Ex. 20:2; 24:8).
- Mt. Sinai (Gal. 4:25)
- Circumcision as a sign of covenant (Ex. 12:44).
- Moses & elders eat with God (Ex. 24:11).
- Moses intercedes for wicked people (Ex. 32-34).

Abraham to Joseph

Abraham

Isaac

Jacob

Joseph

Joseph Son of Jacob

- Joseph is guided by dreams (Matt. 1:20–23, 2:13, 19, 22).
- Joseph brings his family to Egypt to save them.
- The execution of the children ends up being associated with Rachel not Exodus (Matt. 2:6).